

Fulshear Simonton Fire Department Battalion Fire Chief

POSITION: Full Time Battalion Fire Chief
SALARY: 68K – 72K
FLSA: Nonexempt

PRIMARY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Under general supervision, suppress fires using firefighting equipment; perform emergency medical treatment at an emergency medical technician – basic level; perform rescues using ropes and associated hardware and power tools; respond to and address hazardous materials releases as appropriate; assist in fire prevention, public relations and educational activities. Must possess good leadership skills and be able to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing; operate and maintain firefighting equipment; operate and maintain emergency, non-emergency vehicles; perform station maintenance task and inspections; perform related work as required. Requires working 24 to 48 hour shifts, overtime, call-out, holidays and weekends. Primary responsibilities include planning organizing and directing daily operations of a shift and training program, management and supervision of administrative tasks assigned by Fire Chief, Assistant Fire Chief or Business Manager.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Must be a Basic level firefighter certified by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education
- Certification as an Emergency Medical Technician – Basic or higher from the Texas Department of State Health Services
- Possession of an Associate’s degree in Fire Science or six (6) years of progressively more responsible fire management training and/or experience
- Fire Officer I & II certification
- Certifications in National Incident Management System (NIMS 100, 200, 300, 400, 700)

All above certification and licenses are required to be maintained.

For complete job description and application click below:

FSPD Battalion Fire Chief Job Description and Application