All,

Please be aware that we are experiencing several technical issues with our On Line testing system. This has been on-going for several days now and the applied fixes don't seem to be resolving the issues. For these reasons, it has become necessary to shut down the Testing side of our system until we can resolve all the issues. FIDO should not be affected by the shutdown.

I understand the frustration you may experience as a result and I assure you our staff is working diligently to correct the issues.

Respectfully,

Mike Wisko
