

EASTLAND FIRE DEPARTMENT

414 S SEAMAN STREET
EASTLAND, TEXAS 76448
254-629-8668

POSITION VACANCY:

FULL-TIME Firefighter/ EMT- Basic

SALARY: $47,762+FLSA+OT

EASTLAND FIRE DEPARTMENT:

The Eastland Fire Department is combination fire department with staff working a 24/48 shift schedule. We are responsible for providing fire and rescue services within the city of Eastland and approximately 294 square miles of rural Eastland County, including a 9-mile corridor of Interstate I-20. The Eastland Fire Department responded to 870 incidents in 2023. We provide BLS first responder assistance to the hospital-based EMS transport system.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- 18 years of age or older with Highschool Diploma or GED Equivalent
- Valid Texas Class B Exempt Driver's License
- TCFP Basic Firefighter Certification
- Texas DSHS EMT- Basic Certification or above

BENEFITS AND COMPENSATION:

- Texas Municipal Retirement: 2:1 Match @ 5%
- Employee Health, Dental and Life Insurance
- Paid Vacation
- Paid Sick Leave
- Paid Holidays (13)
- Uniforms
- Fire and EMS CE's
- FLSA pay (14 day Cycle) and Overtime Opportunity
- Certification pay

HIRING PROCESS:

For Applications go to www.cityofeastland.com. Click on Government; current positions. There is a link to an application for employment. Complete the application and email it to firechief@eastlandtexas.gov. Applications will be accepted until position is filled.

For any questions or further information pertaining to the City of Eastland Fire Department or the hiring process please call Fire Chief Joe Williamson, Monday – Friday 8am-5pm at 817-360-6679 or email at firechief@eastlandtexas.gov.